

AUTUMN BANNER is the Development & Operations Manager for Transformer and manages the development strategies, grant writing, and fundraising of the organization as well as the everyday operations work of the Transformer space.

Autumn loves to find order in chaos and uses her intuition and creative ways of thinking to solve problems step by step. Autumn has worked in the nonprofit world for nine years in areas such as volunteer and program management, executive operations, grant compliance, and administration. She has a degree in international politics from North Carolina State University and has used her minors in nonprofit studies and Spanish to advance her current career and interests. She is looking forward to being a part of the growth and future of Transformer.

Autumn is passionate about the cultivation of culture in her community and can be found exploring DC's many art spaces, restaurants, and neighborhoods!
