

Transformer and Provisions Library

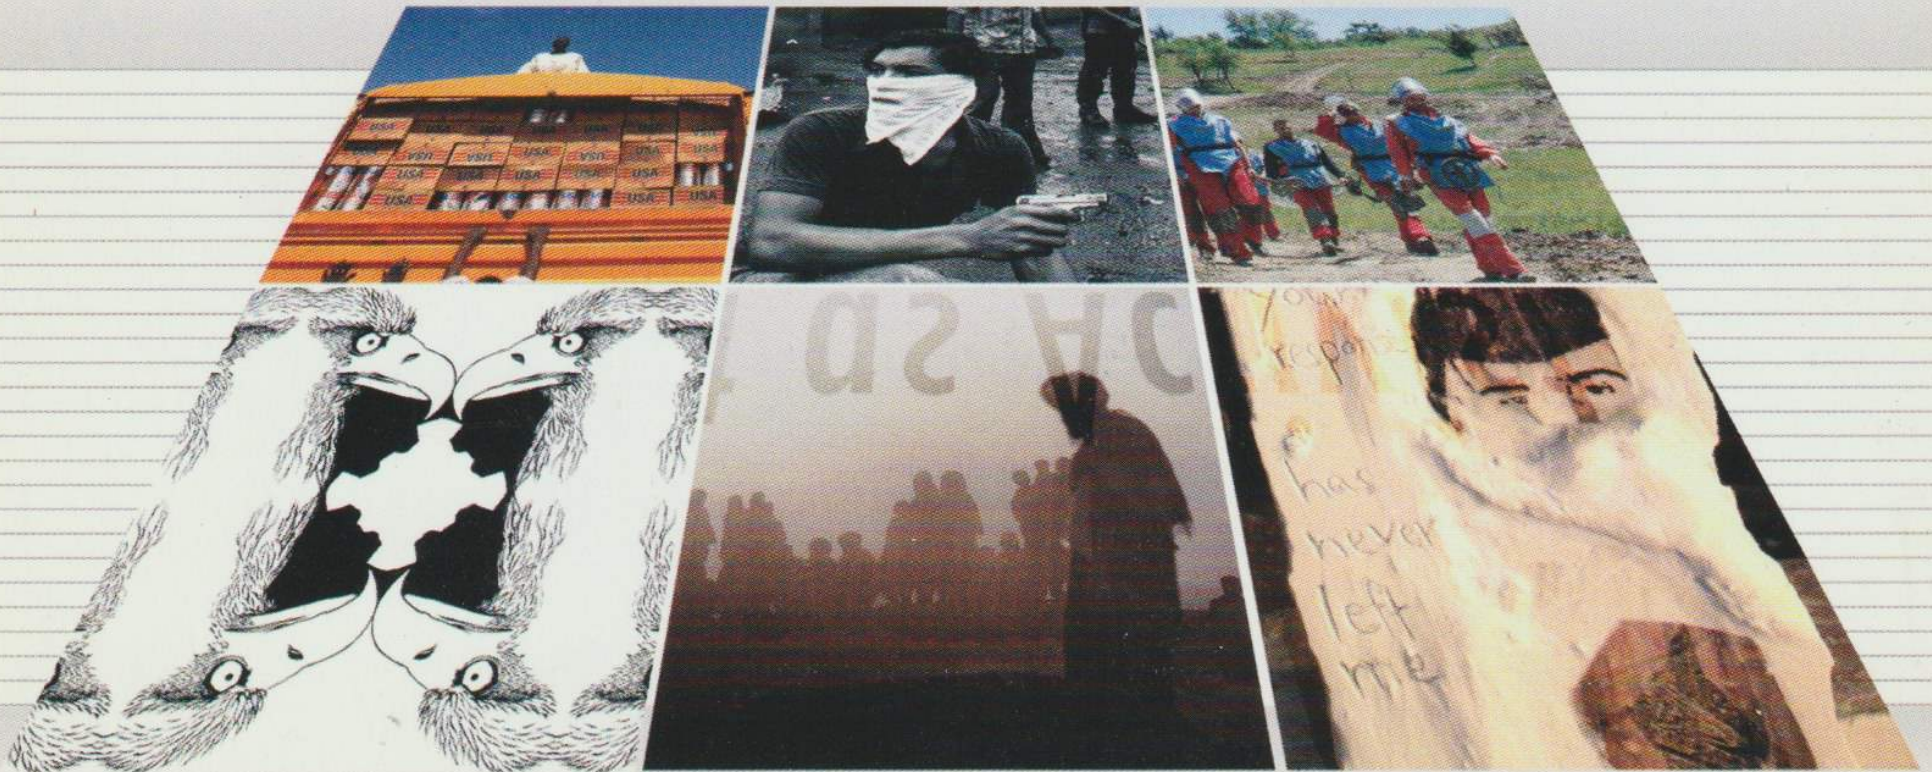

Thursday, June 16, 2005

present:

6:00 p.m. — 8:00 p.m.

FRAMEWORK PANEL FOUR:

Artist as Activist

FRAMEWORK PANEL FOUR: Artist as Activist

Thursday, June 16, 2005 6:00pm - 8:00pm at Provisions Library

Transformer, in partnership with Provisions Library, is pleased to present Artist as Activist - a panel discussion focusing on the artists, artwork and curatorial themes of two current exhibitions:

We Could Be Heroes May 21 - June 25 at Transformer, and

On the Subject of War May 4 - June 26 at Provisions Library

Panelists include:

- J Carrier & Olivia Tecosky, Save the Children-U.S.,
discussing J's images and the situation in Darfur, Sudan
- Brian Liu, discussing the making of the documentary Disarm
- Bobby Neel Adams, photographer of the book, "Broken Wings"
- Kathleen Gilrain,
Director, SmackMellon, Brooklyn, NY; curator, On the Subject of War
- Moderator: Jayme McLellan,
Co-Director, Transformer, Washington, DC; curator, We Could be Heroes

This event is free and open to the public. Light refreshments. Please join us.

Provisions Library

1611 Connecticut Avenue, NW WDC 20009

www.provisionslibrary.org

Transformer

1404 P Street NW WDC 20005

www.transformergallery.org