

Bouncing Souls at the Pony, craft beer and performance art: Things to do this weekend

Alex Biese and Gabriela L. Laracca Asbury Park Press

Published 5:00 a.m. ET July 13, 2022

'Siren Arts: Salt' brings performance art back to Asbury Park

This summer, art is all around us in Asbury Park.

Siren Arts: Salt,” the sixth annual summer arts residency from nonprofit visual arts organization Transformer runs July 11 through Aug. 18 in the city.

There will be free performance arts events at 7 p.m. Thursdays July 14 through Aug. 18 at the Second Avenue beach. Artist talks will be held the day before, at 6 p.m. Wednesdays at Transparent Gallery, 210 Fifth Ave.

The series features nine East Coast-based artists each, according to a news release, “pursuing innovative performance art works that celebrate the ocean through explorations of the theme salt as material, commodity, idea, sensation, identity and emotion.”

For more information and details on each of the performances, visit transformerdc.org/salt. Here’s the schedule:

July 11 to 15: Alina Tenser and Gabo Camnitzer

July 18 to 22: Holly Bass

July 25 to 29: Ikwe (Kelsey Van Ert)

Aug. 1 to 5: Arien Wilkerson with Nicholas Serrambana and Karim Rome

Aug. 8 to 12: Alexander D’Agostino/Glitterwitch

Aug. 15 to 19: Carolina Mayorga (DC)

Go: “Siren Arts: Salt,” 7 p.m. Thursdays July 14 through Aug. 18 at the Second Avenue beach, Asbury Park, preceded by artist talks 6 p.m. Wednesdays at Transparent Gallery, 210 Fifth Ave., free admission; transformerdc.org/salt.